Privacy Policy

T and T Consulting Services, Inc. maintains the website at <https://www.tatcs.com/> (the “TATCS Website” or “Website”) to provide information regarding T and T Consulting Services, Inc. for its business contacts, customers, suppliers, employees, and interested job applicants (collectively, the “Visitors”). When our Visitors visit the TATCS Website, we collect limited personal information from our Visitors with respect to their visit, as described below. This website privacy policy (“Privacy Policy”) describes how T and T Consulting Services, Inc. collects and uses our Visitors’ personal information on the TATCS Website. The TATCS Website is intended for use by our Visitors and is not intended for individual consumers. The Website is not directed to children under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If we become aware that we have inadvertently collected personal information from a child, we will take appropriate steps to delete such information.

For purposes of this Privacy Policy, “personal information” is data about you or that can reasonably be used to identify you. “Personal information” does not include de-identified or aggregated information that does not identify you.

What Type of Information We Collect

We collect the following personal information:

- Your first name, last name, email address, and message
- SMS/Text Campaign Opt-in and Opt-out preferences
- Text message content that you respond to us
- Browser cookies

We automatically collect certain technical information about your visit and device, which may include IP address, browser type, network location, approximate geographic location, operating system, referring URLs, and cookie identifiers.

How We Collect Information

We passively collect your information when

- You provide information by filling in the Contact Us form
- You respond to our SMS/Text Campaign
- You consent the privacy settings through Usercentrics banner

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

The TATCS Website uses cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance user experience, analyze website traffic, improve functionality, and support our marketing efforts.

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. Cookies include first-party cookies (set by TATCS) or third-party cookies (set by service providers or partners).

We may use the following categories of cookies:

1. Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the Website to function properly. They enable core functionality such as security, network management, accessibility, and form submission. These cookies cannot be disabled through our consent tool.

2. Functional Cookies

These cookies allow the Website to remember choices you make (such as preferences) and provide enhanced features.

3. Analytics and Performance Cookies

These cookies help us understand how Visitors interact with the Website by collecting information such as page visits, traffic sources, and user behavior. This information is aggregated and used to improve Website performance and content.

4. Marketing and Advertising Cookies

These cookies may be used to deliver relevant content, measure the effectiveness of marketing campaigns, and support search engine optimization (SEO) efforts. These cookies may track browsing activity across websites, such as IP Address, Browser Type, Device Type, Page visited, and Referring URLs.

How this information is used

We use information to contact you and respond to you via email or SMS/Text Campaign message. We may use your information to respond to your questions and requests. We may also use your information to provide you with the information you have requested, including but not limited to:

- Operate, evaluate and improve our business
- Comply with and enforce applicable legal requirements and our policies
- Protect against, identify and prevent fraud and other unlawful activity

- Improve the Visitors' experience of the Website

For the analytics and marketing cookies, we use WIX SEO tools and related technologies to improve search engine visibility and optimize website performance. TATCS Website allows you to control cookies through privacy settings. You can:

- Delete existing cookies
- Block cookies
- Set preferences for certain websites

With whom this information is shared

We do not sell your personal information. We may share personal information with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating our Website and conducting our business, such as website hosting providers, analytics providers, cloud storage providers, email and SMS communication platforms, and IT service providers. These service providers are authorized to use personal information only as necessary to provide services to us and are subject to appropriate confidentiality and security obligations.

We may also share personal information to:

- Respond to inquiries
- Provide requested information
- Share information about our services where appropriate
- Maintain business relationships

How we protect your personal information

T and T Consulting Services Inc. recognizes the importance of maintaining the security of the information. We endeavor to protect information from unauthorized access and damage by hackers or intruders. We save your personal information using FedRamp Authorized Software as a Service Applications, such as Microsoft and Box. Both applications provide FIPS 140-2 compliant encryption to secure data in transit and at rest.

How long we store your personal information
